Anticipated Floor Action:

Tuesday, January 30

H.R. 93—Federal Firefighters Retirement Age Fairness Act

Wednesday, January 31

H.Con.Res. ____—Permitting the Use of the Rotunda of the Capital

Bill to Be Considered Under Suspension of the Rules

Floor Situation: The House is scheduled to consider H.R. 93 under suspension of the rules as its only order of business on Tuesday, January 30. It is debatable for 40 minutes, may not be amended, and requires a two-thirds majority vote for passage.

H.R. 93 amends federal civil service law to provide that the mandatory retirement age for federal firefighters be raised from 55 to 57 years old. This adjustment will put federal firefighter's retirement age on par with federal law enforcement officers. H.R. 93 was introduced by Mr. Gallegly on January 3, 2001 and was not considered by a committee. In the 106th Congress an identical measure passed the House by voice vote on October 17, 2000.

Bill to Be Considered Under Suspension of the Rules on Wednesday

Floor Situation: The House is scheduled to consider H.Con.Res. ____ under suspension of the rules as its only order of business on Wednesday, January 31. It is debatable for 40 minutes, may not be amended, and requires a two-thirds majority vote for passage.

H.Con.Res. ____ authorizes the use of the Capitol Rotunda for a ceremony that is part of the Days of Remembrance Commemoration to honor victims of the Holocaust. The physical preparations for the ceremony must be carried out in accordance with the plans of the Architect of the Capitol. The resolution is due to be introduced prior to consideration and will not be considered by a House committee.
